HAPPENINGS ABOUT CITY TOLD IN BRIEF

Mr. James A. Marye and sisters are spending a month at Manassas.

The new census figures show that Manassas has a population of 1,305

Mr. W. E. Bain is reported to be critically ill at his residence, 407 Prince street.

Miss Ruth B. Smith is spending her vacation with friends in Madison, Wis.

There will be no meeting held Thursday of the board of lady managers of the Alexandria Hospital.

A meeting of Liberty Rebekah Lodge of Odd Fellows will be held tonight at 8 o'clock.

Dr. Charles E. Outcalt and family have returned from a vacation of two weeks to Rock Point and Baltimore, Md.

Mr. Samuel Bernard DeVaughan, who recently underwent an operation at the Alexandria Hospital, has recovered and returned to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph M. Rawlett, of Atlantic City, N. J., are spending the month of August in Alexandria.

A decree for divorce has been granted in the corporation court to Mrs. Bessie Yancey from Walter T. Yancey.

Messrs. James R. Duncan and Robert F. Armstrong have returned from a weeks' visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. Hubbard Bean, Potomac Beach, Va.

A called meeting of both branches of the city council to make certain plans in connection with the state firemen's convention which will be held here the latter part of this month.

Mrs. Bernard A. Barnett and children are visiting Mr. Phillip B Parks, near The Plains, Va., from where they will go to Democrat Cottage, Bluemont, Va., for a couple of weeks.

Mr. Charles A. Cogan has returned from Scranton, Pa., after attending the General Convention of International Bible Students Convention, August 4 to 8. There were more than fifteen hundred members in attendance.

The local bar association of the city will meet at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning in the corporation court room when it is expected they will recommend some one to fill the vacancy as police justice caused by the death of the late Police Justice L. H. Thompson.

Miss Corinne Reardon, chairman of the entertainment committee of the Ladies' Auxiliary, of the Y. M. C. A., has called a meeting of the special committee which is composed of young people of the various Sunday Schools of the city, which will have charge of the entertainment of the Labor Day Sunday School picnic. The committee is to meet at the Westminster Building at eight o'clock this evening and is composed of the following: Miss Corrinne Reardon, chairman, Clinton Sutherland, Herbert O'Meara, Josephine Williams, Robert Midkiff, Miss Phoebe Deahl, and Miss Leslie Cox.

BLOODHOUNDS ON TRAIL OF PRESS DYNAMITERS

California, Pa., Aug. 10.—The press in the office of the California Sentinel was destroyed early today by an explosion which the authorities believe was caused by dynamite.

Bloodhounds, hurried to the wrecked office, picked up a trail which was followed throughout the morning.

H. J. Lamb, publisher of the Sentinel, has waged vigorous warfare against "speakeasies," which the Sentinel charged were being operated in California.

HOLIDAY DRESS FOR FIREMEN

King Street to be Converted Into White Way

OTHER DECORATIONS

Contracts Signed and All Details For Affair of August 25, 26, 27 Now Complete—Block Dance Feature.

King street, Alexandria's main thoroughfare, will be converted into a veritable midway during the progress of the Virginia State Firemen's Convention to be held here August 25, 26 and 27.

The committee on decorations has let a contract with Washington decorators for decorating that thoroughfare from Fairfax street to Union Station with flags and pennants. Three streamers will be stretched across each square. Between each streamer wil be festoons of lights of sixty watts each. The contract for the electrical work has been awarded Watkins and Washington of this city, electrical contractors.

The lights will burn all night during the three days of the convention and King street will be a blaze of light from end to end in honor of the firemen and visitors who will be here for the occasion.

Many contracts already have been received by Washington decorators for decorating stores and private dwellings for the occasion. It is expected that most of the merchants on King street will have their places decorated for the firemen.

The convention will draw a bigger crowd to Aexandria than any previous convention. In addition to the Virginia companies attending there will be many from Maryland.

Plans for the entertainment of the visitors are now practically completed.

The finance committee report that the receipt of funds is very satisfactory.

Fire Chief Kenneth W. Ogden and C. M. Horgan have been appointed a committee to handle the newspaper reports of the convention.

The entertainment committee is making arrangements for the big block dance which will be given on Washington street. Two blocks on this thoroughfare between Cameron and Prince streets will be used and appropriately decorated and illuminated.

COAL FAMINE DANGER IS DWINDLING RAPIDLY

Washington, Aug. 10.—Danger of a coal famine this winter is rapidly being overcome, according to J. D. A. Morrow, vice president of the National Coal Association, who has just returned to Washington from a ten days' trip through the East During his trip Morrow conferred with coal operators, railway executives and others who have been working to relieve the emergency.

As a result of increased car supply, Morrow said a much greater coal flow is going to New England and on the Northwest, and every expectation is that the wants of the whole country will be fully met.

Indications are that this week's coal production will approach 11,000,000 tons, which is approximately 1,000,000 tons under the output considered necessary to overcome the existing shortage if maintained to December 1.

DIED

WILLIAMS—Departed this life on Monday, August 9th, 1920, GABRIEL N. PONZI'S CHECKS ARE NOT HONORED

Overdrawn Says State Officers Issuing Orders on Withdrawals

BANKRUPCY CHARGED

Three Creditors With $750 in Notes File Petition Against Wizard—Big Deals Called Myths.

Boston, Aug. 10.—Two new difficulties appeared to-day in the conduct of the business of the sensational Charles Ponzi, who claims to have made millions through international postal exchange.

Joseph C. Allen, Bank Commissioner, announced that Ponzi's account at the Hanover Trust Company was overdrawn and prohibited the bank from paying any more checks made by Ponzi or his agents. The account is in the name of Miss Lucy Martelli, his private secretary, as trustee.

After this came the action of three Boston men, James Fernald, Charles Cantwell and Harry Farrell, who have notes totalling $750, in filing an involuntary petition in bankruptcy against the "wizard." They declare there has been discrimination in the disbursing of funds.

The audit of Ponzi's books, which had been going on ten days, was completed today by Edwin L. Pride, who immediately filed his report with Daniel J. Gallagher, Assistant United States District Attorney. Later Ponzi and Gallagher were in a conference, which was attended also by Mr. Storch expert of the Department of Justice from Washington, Daniel H. Coakley, attorney and Daniel V. McIsaac, former Assistant District Attorney. Gallagher and Pride refused to discuss the result of the audit.

After a lengthy statement by Attorney General Allen today, the first he has made since he became active in the case. Ponzi responded with more hot shots against the State official, all more or less vague.

The Attorney General declared that "although Ponzi claims that his dealings in international reply coupons were conducted on a large scale, the investigation discloses nothing to confirm his statement. We find no evidence of his ever having received money from Europe through either of the institutions he described to us.

Ponzi charges that Allen is 'behind' the action against him at the Hanover Trust Company, the bank in which he recently acquired an interest. Ponzi asserts he has $1,500,000 in cash at the Hanover Bank. It is known that

RICH GEMS ON BODY IN RIVER

Detroit, Aug. 10.—Authorities here are endeavoring to identify the body of a richly dressed woman found in the Detroit River near Wyandotte, a suburb, yesterday afternoon.

The woman, who was about 35 years of age, wore jewelry estimated by the police to be worth several thousand dollars. The costly clothing bore no marks of identification. The body bore no evidences of foul play, according to the officers. No person answering the description of the dead woman has been reported missing here or at nearby towns.

Dies of Wounds

Gabriel Williams Succumbs of Wounds Received Last Thursday

Gabriel Williams, colored, of this city, who was accidentally shot last Thursday evening at Miller's brickyard, Fairfax county, several miles below this city, died yesterday afternoon at the Alexandria Hospital. The shooting was done by William Carter, colored, who worked with Williams. Carter gave himself up and was released on his own recognizance. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Alfred Street Baptist Church.

A coroner's jury will meet at 7:30 o'clock tonight at Shiflett's barber shop at 915 King street and hold an inquest over Williams' body. The jury summoned is composed of Thomas Chauncey, Julian F. Poss, C. W. Summers, J. C. Bruin, T. M. Dunbarr and M. B. Shifflet, Dr. T. M. Jones will preside.

BISHOP MANNIX REMOVED FROM BALTIC AS PRISONER

London, Aug. 10.—Four British destroyers closed in upon the steamer Baltic, carrying Archbishop Mannix, of Australia, from the United States, off the Irish coast in the early hours of yesterday morning, and the commander of the destroyer Wivern, with two Scotland Yard detectives went aboard and placed the Archbishop under technical arrest. They escorted the prelate, with his secretary, Rev. Albert Vaughan, to a destroyer which steamed toward Fishguard, where orders had been given to land the Archbishop.

A wireless from the Admiralty, however, reached them en route, with instructions to proceed to Penzance, at the extreme southwesterly tip of England. The Archbishop was landed there this afternoon. He was accompanied by a representative of Scotland Yard to the home of Canon Wade and afterward took the night train for London.

Thus the question of the landing place of Archbishop Mannix, which for many days has been under discussion by Irishmen everywhere, as well as the public in general, was answered.

London newspapers of all complexions, excepting only the Morning Post are unanimous in describing the affair as a "blunder." All the provincial papers take the same view.

CROSSED ATLANTIC IN YAWL

Three Men Make Voyage of 2100 Miles in 15 Days, 9 Hours

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Aug. 10.—What is believed to be a record passage across the Atlantic for a 35-foot yawl was made by the Typhon, which arrived this morning after making a non-stop run, it is claimed, from Cape Race, Newfoundland, to Bishops Rock, Scilly Islands, a distance of 2100 miles, in 15 days and 9 hours.

Passengers on the boat were Frederick Baldwin, of Toronto; James Dorsett, of Washington, and William Dutting, of New York. They said they encountered heavy seas and came through well, claiming a record passage in their effort to reach Cowes in time for the international motorboat races, which begin here tomorrow.

HUNDRED HUNT KIDNAPPED CHILD

Philadelphia, Aug. 10.—After a week spent in the examination of Augusto Pasquale, known as "the crank" and the running out of numerous clews the police yesterday were still without any trace of the whereabouts of 13-month-old Blakely Coughlin, stolen from his crib on June 2.

Maj. Lynn Adams, head of the Pennsylvania State police, declared tonight he is confident the child will be recovered within a week. More than 100 of his men, in addition to local police and postal inspectors, are engaged in the case.

The story told by Pasquale that the boy was kidnaped by a man named "Joe" and his wife is correct, in the opinion of Benjamin Goodman counsel for the prisoner.

MINISTER DISPUTE BRINGS BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT

Pottsville, Pa., Aug. 10.—Because Miss Flora Ney and George Snyder, of Schuylkill Haven, were unable to agree as to the minister who was to marry them today, their wedding did not take place and Miss Ney brought suit before Alderman A. L. Rekert, of this city, charging Snyder with failure to keep his promises. Snyder entered bail in $400 for court.

Miss Ney and Snyder are members of different religious denominations and each one is positive in declaring they will not be married except by a minister of their own church. It is possible a compromise may be effected by selecting Alderman Rekert, popular with brides and grooms, to tie the knot.

DENVER CAR STRIKE BROKEN

Denver, Aug. 10.—Full resumption of street car service in Denver interrupted by a strike a week ago, waits only for the Denver Tramway Company's announcement of its willingness to reemploy the men who struck. The men today offered to return unconditionally

DOLLAR DAY IS A BIG SUCCESS

Crowds Throng Stores From Early Until Late Hunting Bargains

WEATHER IS IDEAL

Threatened Rain Fails to Mar Success of Biggest Sale Ever Held in Alexandria.

Sensational values advertised in the proper manner, coupled with the kindness of old Jupitur Pluvius in holding back threatened rain during the morning hours, combined to make today the biggest of all the big Dollar Day Sales that have ever been held in the city.

All of the extra salesmen and saleswomen that could be picked up for the occasion were insufficient to meet the demands of the throngs of shoppers that took possession of the maojrity of the stores of the city at an early hour and continued to crowd the stores during the entire day.

Some of the stores were crowded to capacity within ten minutes after opening time this morning and proprietors stated that there had been but little lull in the business until late this afternoon. Every merchant takng part in the sale expressed surprise that such a crowd coud be enticed from home and are unanimous in the decision that DOLLAR DAY is the greatest of all sales that have ever been held here.

The larger stores were up against a big task in properly caring for their customers, while the stores advertising but a few specials found the supply they had laid out insufficient to meet the demands for these articles.

And the women who attended the Dollar Day Sale not only visited the stores that sell women's wearing apparel. They bought heavily for the male members of their families, flocking into the men's clothing store in the same proportion that they favored the women's stores. Every merchant, whose name was included in the big list published last Friday, had nothing but the highest praise to say for the August 1920, Dollar Day Sale that is going on today.

Thompson Funeral

Last Rites for Veteran Journalist Largely Attended

The funeral of Police Justice Luther H. Thompson, veteran journalist and former mayor who died Friday, took place at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon from his late residence 501 South Fairfax street, and was attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends, including members of the bar association, city officials, police department and others. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, assisted by Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis, of the Episcopal Theological Seminary. Members of Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons ,of which lodge the deceased was a member, attended and conducted the services at the grave. The floral tributes were handsome and numerous. Interment was in Union cemetery.

Honorary pallbearers were Samuel H. Lunt, John W. May, M. T. Dwyer, F. F. Marbury, Winfield Watkins, W. P. McKnight, Howard W. Smith and Anthony Brenner.

A CORRECTION

Owing to several unintentional errors in prices, the advertisement of Eddy and Gerber, 900 King street, is being repeated today. The Dollar Day Sale will be continued tomorrow and all are invited to visit the store and see these great values.

DEPOSITORS IN THE NATIONAL BANKS

The attached statment shows by States, on May 4, 1920, the number of deposit accounts in proportion to population in all National Banks. Wyoming stood first with 394 depositors per 1,000 of population. Montana was next with 349 per 1,000 of population. The twelve states whose National Banks reported the next largest number of deposit accounts in proportion to population were in the order named: Idaho, 293; Pennsylvania, 289; Colorado, 280; Oregon, 275; Minnesota, 271; Iowa, 262; Virginia, 259; Vermont, 255; California, 248; South Dakota, 244; Maine, 239; Texas, 236; per 1,000 of population.

For the entire United States there were 190 deposit accounts for each 1,000 of the population, or approximately one National Bank account for every 5 1-2 of the population.

The number of demand deposit accounts in National Banks in the entire country was 12,315,000; the number of time deposit accounts was 8,065,000, making a total of both time and demand deposit accounts May 4, 1920, for the entire country of 20,380,000 as compared with 7,700,000 deposits accounts in National Banks on June 30, 1910.

Double Killing

Woman Kills Man Then Shoots Herself

Charlottesville, Va., Aug. 10.—The second tragedy in this county within a fortnight occurred near Carters Bridge Sunday night. Residents of the village 10 miles south of this city, startled by three pistol shots in rapid succession, ran to the scene on the roadside and found Mr. I. J. Lang writhing in agony from two bullet wounds, one in his abdomen and the other in his back. Close by lay Mrs. Hattie Chumbley, a handsome young married woman, with a bullet wound through her heart and a .38-calibre pistol clasped in her hand. Two of Lang's seven children, a girl of 10 and a boy of 12, were eyewitnesses of the shooting.

Mrs. Chumbley and Lang, it is alleged had been friends of years. The two families had only recently moved to this section, the Chumbleys from the home of the Allens, at Hillsville, Carroll county, and the Langs from near Christiansburg. The members of the families were apparently on most friendly terms.

Sunday afternoon Mrs. Chumbley visited the Lang home and inquired after Lang. When told that he had gone to Carter's Bridge, nearly two miles away, she started in that direction after bidding Mrs. Lang good-by and remarking, "I am going to kill somebody before we get back."

Locating Mr. Lang upon reaching the village, she waited until he came out of the house where he was visiting, accompanied by two of his children. The shooting occurred after they had walked 200 yards. Lang was rushed to this city in a car after midnight and an operation performed at the University Hospital. One of the bullets perforated his intestines and his condition is regarded as critical. Mrs. Chumbley was 22 and is survived by her husband and three children, the oldest of whom is 7. She was married at 14. Lang is 38.

ALLIES TO DELAY POLISH ACTION

NOT TO SEND TROOPS

Munitions, Technical Advice and Blockade as Weapons—Allies Encouraged by Reports

Hythe, England, Aug. 10.—What is equivalent to a state of war exists between the Allied governments and Soviet Russia as a result of the Hythe conference, which closed this afternoon, but there is still one hope of peace.

If Russia shows a reasonable disposition at the Minsk conference Wednesday the war preparations now under way will be stopped and negotiations may be reopened.

French and British statesmen discussed the situation all day. The original plan for the French to leave at 2.30 this afternoon was abandoned and the afternoon session was held, the French finally leaving at 5 o'clock. Lloyd George left at the same time to attend the special Cabinet meeting, at which his statement to Parliament was discussed.

It is announced officially that the Allies are in complete agreement regarding what action is to be taken in regard to the Polish situation, subject in the case of Great Britain, to the approval of Parliament. Until after the Premier's statement tomorrow no further official announcement will be made.

It can be stated on authority, however, that the Allies decided to support the Poles with technical advice, army officers, munitions and a naval blockade.

There is no intention to employ any Allied troops, and too much stress cannot be laid on this feature, in view of the attitude of the people of both Great Britain and France.

The British statesmen have made up their minds that the efforts they have been making for the last four months to induce the Russian Government to come to terms with the rest of the world are futile and that they are dealing with fanatics with whom bargaining is impossible.

They are now determined to support the Poles and prevent the crushing of the new nation, for whose creation, under the Treaty of Versailles, they are responsible. They are convinced that the Russians have made up their minds to "Bolshevik" Poland and set up soviets, a plan to which the overwhelming majority of Poles are opposed.

It is definitely decided, however, that the outcome of the struggle must depend in a large measure on the fighting quality of the Poles themselves. They have plenty of men and material, and it is hoped that with Allied leadership and financial and industrial help, they will be able to save their nation from extinction.

That there is some hope of peace, however, is evidenced by the decision to allow Krassin and Kemeneff, Russian envoys, to remain in England, until after the result of the Minsk meeting is learned. If that is favorable, doubtless they will remain indefinitely to carry on negotiations.

The Allies are much encouraged by reports from the military advisers as to the quality of the Russian armies sent. Soldiers who have just returned from Poland report the Reds are negligible as soldiers and that the only reason they have won victories has been lack of military leading in the Polish armies.

These reports also are taken as clearing up all fear of the Bolshevist threats toward India and Persia.

Reports from Germany also indicate there is no likelihood of the Germans lending the soviets any help. The present German Government leans toward the right path and is morally afraid of the Bolshevist creed. What is likely is that the Germans will offer aid against Russia in return for concessions on the Versailles treaty.

A CHANCE TO TRY THE PAPER SUIT

Will Americans take to paper clothing if the samples which the Department of Commerce has ordered from Germany come up to expectation? The substitution of paper for cloth was one of the expedients compelled by the war. It was not supposed at the time that any would prefer paper to cloth. Yet according to report, many wearers of these suits like them.

If they can be sold here for sixty cents, the temptation to try them will be very strong. Should they survive even one month's wear, the purchaser might feel that he had got the value of his money. For a two year's supply would cost him less than the cheapest of cloth suits. That paper is a warm material is known. But how will it stand wet weather? Let us not burst into ignorance.

HEADQUARTERS FOR BUNK

"Senator Harding's Headquarters" professes to be amazed at Governor Cox's assertion that the Republican Congress has not made a single effort, or passed a single law," to reduce the burden of war taxation. Headquarters denounces this as "far from recorded facts."

The documentary evidence, if it exist, should be easy to produce. Headquarters contents itself with claiming Republican reductions in appropriations, which, as shown in another article in these columns, is a false claim based on the juggling of figures. But even if it were true, and if a Republican Congress had reduced appropriations by the amount stated, without reducing taxation, Governor Cox's statement remains unimpeached, does it not?

Let "Senator Harding's Headquarters" point out a Republican law reducing the war taxation, or acknowledge itself guilty of another feeble and futile effort to mislead the voters.

KEEP THE SCHEMERS AWAY

In the wake of the Ponzi get-rich quick episode in Boston, newspapers and the postoffice are surfeited with schemes to take your money and invest it on a 30 or 40 per cent interest basis.

Publicity of this kind should be stopped, and District Attorney Swann and the postal officials should promptly get on the trail of the schemers.

Unfortunately the people most likely to be lured into such "investments" are those least able to lose the money. It represents savings made at the sacrifice of comfort, and the possibility of making it increase faster than at normal figures is undoubtedly tempting—too tempting at times to be resisted. But one has only to do some calm thinking about 30 and 40 per cent offers to realize their worthlessness. If such returns were possible on any safe basis, the millions of dollars now earning 7 or 8 per cent would quickly be diverted into the more lucrative channels. A sure rule to guide investment is that the higher the interest rate the lower the security for your principal. Apply that rule to the various get-rich-quick enterprises and not a dollar of savings would ever be lured into them.

MAN AS A GERM FROM THE SEA

Science always has some new marvel to gratify human credulity. Thus at the Strasbourg Congress of Scientists the theory has been advanced that the original germ of humanity comes from the sea. Briefly, it is argued that human temperature variation corresponds with the change of water temperature through the action of the sun. "There is little doubt," observes Dr. Keating Hart, who read a paper on the subject at the Congress, "that this rythm of beat in humans is merely the persistence of the ancestral phenomenon of our marine parents." The deep thinker will be fascinated by the deductions to be drawn from this hypothesis.

Into matters of scientific proof the layman plunges only at his peril. Yet, just as tradition implies an original face, so a usage may throw light on a theory, if not with confirmation strong as proof of Holy Writ. The relationship of man to the denizens of the deep may account for the disposition to liken man to them. There may be something more than a crude form of humor in the language which describes one man as a lobster, another as a crab, a third as a mollusc, and condemns the victim of his faults, or his misfortunes as a poor fish. Here, perhaps, is atavism in the guise of slang.

Does not a marine origin of man also explain his detestable love of the sea? From the dawn of history he has braved an element he might more reasonably have feared. The Latin poet thought that the first to venture out to sea must have had a heart of triple brass. Was he not rather drawn thither by an irresistible impulse, seeking his own? Man as a germ from the sea is at least a very plausible being.

WHY NOT GIVE HIM A BILLION?

One of the chief claims of prohibition is that it empties the jails and fills the savings banks. It has certainly emptied Uncle Sam's Treasury of several hundred million dolars already, which, the enemies of prohibition may argue, is a set off against the apparent financial gain in other directions. And what are we to say about the reduction in crime in the face of Commissioner Kramer's reported boast that the dry agents have made more than 50,000 arrests in six months? But even better things are promised if Congress can only be induced to increase this year's appropriation of $3,000,000. These 50,000, it must be remembered, are, in the prohibition view, criminals of an especially dangerous and immoral type. Trying to dispense or get a drink is not only a violation of the Constitution but a sin against the moral code. In place of the petty offenders of the past, therefore, Commissioner Kramer has, according to a Washington dispatch, added to virtue's gamebag 50,000 villians of the deepest dye.

Truly a great and glorious record. But think of what may be accomplished if only Congress can be made to realize its duty. Obviously, it is a mere question of arithmustic. If Commissioner Kramer can catch 50,000 wicked persons with three million dollars in six months, he would be able to arrest 100,000 with six millions, 200,000 with twelve millions, and half a million desperate booze-devils if his dry army were only large enough. Nobody but the elect would be out of jail in a few years, if the Commissioner were only given as much money as he needs.

He ought to be granted at least a billion next year. The only way to hunt iniquity down and to chase Satan off the earth is with money. Mr. Kramer knows, for what other police chief has ever caught 50,000 rascals in six months?—Baltimore Sun.

BILLY SUNDAY CALLS LEAGUE SOLONS MUTTS

Lincoln, Neb., 7 Aug. 10.—The league of nations was made a target by Billy Sunday who came out of retirement here long enough to make a short address before the Epworth Assembly.

"I am not in favor of allowing a bunch of mutts, mollycoddles and curmudgeons to sit around a table and decide when we are to declare our wars," he said. "I am not for a league without reservations, and if Jim Cox and the Democratic party stand by the kind of league Wilson brought home with him, they will go to digging graves so deep they will never hear Gabriel's trumpet on Judgment Day."

AUTO TURNED INTO BOMB

Murderous Tampering With Machine Discovered in Time.

Quakertown, Pa., Aug. 10.A. dastardly attempt to kill any member of the W. A. Foultz family who might operate the Foultz automobile, was made Tuesday night, when someone gained entrance to the garage by sawing the lock and filled the cylinders with high explosive powder, the spark plugs being carefully placed back to avoid suspicion of tampering. The culprits also filled the radiators with mud and placed sand in the crank case. Neither Mr. Foultz nor any member of his family can assign a reason for the act, and are at a loss to know who would attempt to take their lives.

Vernon Foultz, a son, was the first to discover the powder, which it is said was sufficient in quanity to blow the automobile to atoms, when an attempt had been to run it. The murderous plotter after completing his work apparently expected to make a clean-up of tools, tires and other articles, but probably was scared away by Mrs. Foultz who had risen early. However, he escaped with tools valued at $30. The only clew left behind is a bottle of blue vitriol.

WOMAN ACQUITED OF ELECTION FRAUD

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 10.—Mrs. Lillian Voss Howe, clerk, and Mrs. Mary O'Brien, judge in the last mayoralty ection were freed today with three men, all of whom were charged with election frauds.

William D. Scully, chief of the vote fraud bureau, told Judge Crowe the prosecution had no evidence showing the guilt of the defendants. He was scored by the judge for taking up the time of the court when he had no evidence to prove his case.

The women, both of whom were married since the last election, were the first women to be tried in an Illinois court on election corruption charges.

PONZI ENTERPRISE FAILS TO APPEAR

Poston, Aug. 10.—The promised $100,000,000 undertaking of Charles Ponzi, which was two have been born today, failed to make its appearance.

The Ponzi offices were open, however, and there were many who sought to leave their money with the "foreign exchange wizard." Louis F. Mantani, of Portsmouth, N. H., a druggist, came all the way to Boston with $100,000 in cash to invest in the new venture. He said the money represented a "pool" raised by Itaians in his city.

Be Honest in the Matter. If You Were an Employer and Needed Good Help---

Would You Give Yourself a Job?

Think it Over! You know yourself better than anybody else in the world does. You can review yourself as no other person can. You know what any employer has a right to expect from the person filling the position that you are holding. Judge yourself, but not by the things your employer sees. Put yourself to the test. Place those things which you alone know about yourself on one side of the balance and put those things which your employers can reasonably expect from you on the other side. What is the result? Do you weigh enough? Are you big enough? Are you giving such service that you would want from a man in your position if you were the boss? In other words knowing yourself as you do, would you give yourself a job if you were doing the employing? If not, take an inventory of yourself. Check up. Pick out the flaws. Compare yourself with the man whom your employer needs. Note your failures and imperfections. Point out to yourself the changes you would like to see in yourself before you would give yourself a job. Then make yourself the man you know you ought to be to fill your position satisfactorily and honestly.

Production

This is what every employer demands and has a right to expect for the money he pays as salary.

Have you Produced Enough

This month so that you can honestly feel that you are an investment yielding a profit?

Improvement

Have you advanced during the past month? Do you endeavor to do more and better work day by day?

Do You Strive to Advance?

Are you in a rut or are you endeavoring to improve and be worth more to those who employ you?

Contentment

Are you satisfied with your job? Do you feel that you are in the place where you can do your best?

Are You Dissatisfied?

If so, talk to your employer. You'll find him ready to listen to you and help you.

Steadiness

Men who stick to their jobs are wanted and are more valuable than those who run from job to job.

Don't Keep Changing Jobs

You gain nothing by running from place to place. The valuable workman is the one who sticks.

Indifference

Don't work without an interest in your job. Don't be a part of the machine but—

Be Interested in Your Work

Endeavor to find a quicker and better way to do the work for this is an age of improvement.

Think it Over!

If you are doing less than you can, stop where you are and start doing your best. It pays much in the end.

Advancement

This should be the aim of every employe and honest effort makes it possible.

Merit Will Always Win

Those who wish to advance and will take an interest in their work beyond the weekly pay envelope, will sooner or later always reach the top.

ARE YOU

A GOOD INVESTMENT?

Do you return your employer 100 cents and interest on every dollar that he pays you? The man, or woman who succeeds and climbs to the top, is the one who recognizes the justness of the claims of the employer for a profit from his employes.

Not How Little--But How Much

Should be the aim of every man who is in the employ of another. This applies whether it is an executive position or among those who produce with their hands. In every line of business this sense of loyalty and fairness calls upon them to do their utmost. They do not measure the work by what is expected of them but by their ability.

They are not satisfied to just get by, but their interest in their work calls upon them to do their best and utmost. It is these men who advance and are selected for their worth and are ready for better things when the opportunity comes their way. It is also easy to find those who are afraid of accomplishing more than they should. They want to get by with the very least possible result of their labor. They do not want their employer to profit on what they do. They aim to do the least that they can and still hold their job. They are always dissatisfied with their pay and are always crying about higher wages elsewhere and how they are being underpaid. Many times they openly boast of their slackness and think it is a matter of which to be proud. They are cheating themselves more than any one else. Think it over. Are you a good investment to the man who pays you your salary, or are you worthless to him as far as making money for him? Answer these question to your self. Let your own conscience tell you where you stand; but remember, if you want to make money for yourself, you must be a profitable investment to those who now put the money in your pay envelope. You may get along and continue drawing pay but you will stand where you are whole others with more interest in their work and with energy to do their best will pass you. They will receive recognition of their work in more responsible positions and with better wages, while you will continue to plod along.

If it was your money that's meeting the Richmond.—Frank B. Watkins, sergeant at arms of the Virginia senate for more than a quarter of a century, dropped dead yesterday at his home at Charlotte Courthouse.

Mrs. Joanna D. Carpenter, wife of Frank G. Carpenter, author and newspaper correspondent, died Sunday at her summer home near Bluemont, Va. Mrs. Carpenter was born in 1856 at Morristown, N. J.

Norfolk—Lina Polley, 22 years old, a pretty brunette, yesterday confessed to the Norfolk police that she lured D. E. Hiser, who lies in a critical condition from pistol wounds in a local hospital, to a lonely spot near the city for the purpose of robbing him. The woman's confession resulted in the arrest of E. H. Pallett, 22, and David Leroy Pallett, 18 who she said, assisted her. She claims the older Pallett fired the shot which went through Hiser's neck. Hiser's watch and a mutilated ring were found in the woman's room.

Petersburg—Mrs. Maude Westbrook, wife of C. W. Westbrook, a farmer and deputy sheriff of Surry county, shot and killed her six year old daughter and her son, aged five years, yesterday. When her husband, hearing the shots, rushed into the room, the mother was reloading the gun, saying she wanted to "finish the job." Her three weeks old baby on the bed was unharmed. She has been ill several months.

Lynchburg—A bloody towel found in the stove at his shanty and the fact that his shoes, with broken soles, exactly fit tracks at the scene of the assault, constitute the evidence on which police are holding Robert Williams, colored, charged with the assault of Miss Annie Ross, a Swedish masseuse. LABOR'S THREAT WARNS BRITAIN AGAINST WAR

London, Aug. 10.—Declaring "war between the Allied Powers and Soviet Russia over Poland would be an intolerable crime against humanity," British labor has warned the British government that organized labor will be used to defeat such a war. Leaders of British labor in conference today resolved "to take such steps as may be necessary to carry the above decision into effect." A statement advised all labor organizations to be prepared to send their leaders to London "to instruct their members to lay down their tools."

"This conference feels certain," said the statement, "that war is being engineered between the Allied Powers and Soviet Russia on the issue of Poland."

A "Committee of Action" appointed by the meeting will see Premier Lloyd George at noon tomorrow. The conference, which represented the whole field of labor, is regarded as having presented an ultimatum to the government threatening direct action.

MOVIES

RICHMOND THEATRE

INGOMAR—"Dangerous Hours"

A motion picture that is said to have called forth endorsements from the governors of several states, leading civil and educational authorities, and other prominent personages as a mighty Americanization infuence will be seen tonight at the Ingomar Theatre. It is the big Thomas H. Ince production, "Dangerous Hours" which tells a thrilling love story against the background of the Red menance of Bolshevism. Spectacular scenes are laid in America and Russia. The film is declared to be in no way propaganda—simply a gripping motion picture. Barbara Castleton and Lloyd Hughes are the featured players.

PONZI'S CHECKS ARE NOT HONORED

he has a certificate of deposit for that sum there. He fixed his liabilities at $500,000.

Those appearing at the School street offices today for the purpose of investing in the new venture were informed that money was not being received as yet. A score or so of holders of Ponzi notes, most of which were matured, presented themselves and were paid promptly.

Ponzi himself gave out a statement to newspaper men reiterating that he was solvent and that he desired to have the investigations completed as soon as possible so that he might resume his business operations. He said that he had a certified check for $1.-500,000 subject to thirty days' notice of withdrawal at the Hanover Trust Company, where it is alleged he has overdrawn one account, and added that he had on deposit in the form of funds and securities in other institutions in Boston amounts more than sufficient to cover all liabilities.

GIRL IN ARENAS CASE FREED.

She Faints When Dismissed—Leaves With Husband

New York, Aug. 7.—Mrs. Ruth Schultz, of Toledo, O., who under her stage name of Ruth Jackson, had been held in connection with the suicide of Dr. Jose Arenas here last Saturday night, was released as material witness by Magistrate Joseph Schwab in West Side Court today.

In dismissing the case, Magistrate Schwab advised Mrs. Schultz to forget her ambition to become a theatrical star and in the future remain with her husband in Toledo.

Apparently greatly moved by the Magistrate's advice, Mrs. Schultz fainted when her case was dismissed, but she quickly revived and left for Toledo accompanied by her husband.

Prices—
Up or Down?

High prices for livestock increase the producer's income. Low prices decrease it and even result in losses. Similarly, high prices for meat increase consumer's expenses.

But Swift & Company as a middleman does not benefit by high or low prices. Our income depends not on a high level of prices or a low level, but rather on the margin between the livestock price and the meat and by-products price.

The company's only concern, in whether prices should be high or low, is that they should be high enough to satisfy producers and low enough to please consumers; but over the movement of these prices Swift & Company has no control.

Swift & Company is compelled by competition to pay high enough prices for livestock to secure an adequate supply. We must sell meat at a price low enough to make it move. We endeavor also, between the two prices, to secure a margin large enough to pay all expenses and yield a fair profit.

Our profit for 1919 averaged less than two cents on each dollar of sales, or 6⅞ per cent on money invested.

"DETECTIVE CONSCIENCE" DRIVES FORGER TO SURRENDER

Chicago, Ill. Aug. 1.—On the records of the Chicago Detective Bureau today the names of four detectives stand behind that of W. Blake Faust self-confessed forger. They are given credit for his arrest.

But in his cell Faust, a young man of 27, says that a greater detective than any of these ferreted him out, hounded him for nearly a year and finally made him come forward and give himself up voluntarily. This is "Detective Conscience."

"I have tried to run from my conscience since last December," mused Faust as he sat on a wooden slab in his cell. "I went from one town to the other. I never stayed more than three days at the most. Always there came to my mind the $1200 worth of checks I had cashed in Omaha, Kansas City and Des Moines.

"I never had word that any one was seeking me but I imagined it all the time. As Milton says: 'I walked benighted under the midday sun.' Any man will that has anything like that on his mind. Here's my message to all who face temptation: 'Don't—you may escape the police, but your conscience will hound you down.' I gave myself up to get some peace of mind.

"I never enjoyed myself anywhere. Every time I sat down to a meal Detective Conscience was right behind me looking over my shoulder. I got indigestion. I couldn't sleep as I saw him near.

"I arrived in Chicago yesterday morning. I had six cents. I went to the City Hall several times and tried to surrender but I couldn't find any one in. I walked out and gave the six cents to a beggar. I then wet back ad waited in Chief Garritson's office and finally told Desk Sergeant Lynch my story. He called the detectives."

New York, Aug. 10.—In a little fruit stand, 10 by 3 feet, Mrs. Domineca Zazzazia amassed a fortune estimated at $185,000, it became known today when she died in an apartment in one of her own tenements in Newark. Old age was given as the cause of death.

Mrs. Zazzazia had operated her little stand for 35 years. Her fortune will fall to her two sons.

Arid Regime is Driving Thirsty Throngs to Land of Greasers

El Paso, Texas, Aug. 10.—During the fiscal year ending July 1, 1920 it will be recalled the United States went dry in mid-January; 418,7[illegible] persons crossed into Mexico as "tourists." This was announced here today or so ago, while the report of the border supervisor of immigration showed only 14,130 "tourists" crossing the border during the preceding fiscal year, ending July 1919. During that period the United States was wet.
